EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Agensi Pekerjaan JME Plus Sdn. Bhd. is a professional employment agency specializing in the recruitment and placement of qualified local Malaysian candidates for manufacturing and industrial positions across Johor. The company is established to bridge the talent gap faced by factories and industrial operators by supplying reliable, job-ready, and compliant local manpower.

With a focused understanding of Johor's industrial ecosystem, we work closely with manufacturing clients to identify their specific workforce requirements, including production operators, technicians, supervisors, and support staff. The agency applies a structured recruitment process that emphasizes candidate suitability, work readiness, discipline, and long-term employability, ensuring that placements meet both operational and productivity expectations of clients.

We are committed to building client confidence through transparent recruitment practices, systematic candidate screening, and continuous coordination between employers and job seekers. By prioritizing local talent, the company supports sustainable workforce development while helping factories reduce turnover, recruitment time, and operational disruptions.

Driven by professionalism, responsiveness, and results, Agensi Pekerjaan JME Plus Sdn. Bhd. positions itself as a trusted recruitment partner for factories in Johor, delivering qualified local candidates who contribute positively to operational efficiency and business continuity.
